Immerse yourself in the hidden digital cleaning industry, which rids the Internet of content deemed inappropriate. This serious-minded, accessible and compelling documentary is admirably measured but unafraid to show disturbing content, or ask some searching questions. Who controls what we see and what we think? What is acceptable and who decides? Discover the controversies at the intersection of human rights and new technologies.

The screening will be followed by a discussion with

Ms Dorothee Baumann-Pauly

Research Director and Expert on Business and Human Rights, New York University and HEC Lausanne

Mr Jacques de Werra

Professor, Université de Genève

Mr IlCheong Yi

Senior Research Coordinator, UNRISD

Moderator: Ms Catherine Frammery

Journalist and Digital Expert, Le Temps

first-served basis.
